

[Intro]
Db Ab Ebm7 Gb

[Verse]

So I found a reason to stay alive
 Try a little harder see the other side
 Talking to myself, too many sleepless nights
 Trying to find a meaning to this stupid life

[Pre-Chorus]

I don't want your sympathy
 Sometimes I don't know who to be

[Chorus]

Hey what you're looking for?
 No one has the answer
 They just want more
 Hey who's gonna make it right?
 This could be the first
 Day of my life

[Verse]

So I found a reason to let it go
 Tell you that I'm smiling but I still need to grow
 Will I find salvation in the arms of love
 Will it stop me searching will it be enough

[Pre-Chorus]

I don't want your sympathy
 Sometimes I don't know who to be

[Chorus]

Hey what you're looking for?
 No one has the answer
 They just want more
 Hey who's gonna make it right?
 This could be the first
 Day of my life

[Bridge]

The first time to really feel alive
 The first time to break the chain
 The first time to walk away from pain

[Chorus]

Hey what you're looking for?
 No one has the answer
 We just want more
 Hey who's gonna make it right?
 This could be the first
 Day of your life

Hey what you're looking for?
 No one has the answer
 They just want more
 Hey who's gonna shine a light?
 This could be the first
 Day of my life
